

SAMAYANTAR

Samayantar, the symbolic and insignia that illustrates them as “Timeless”. It is a society running on the principles of punctuality and regularity. The society’s logo perfectly encapsulates their name and depicts a sandbox where time stands still and the wings allow their ambitions and endeavours to fly high in the realm of storytelling. Boundless saga's brimming in every single creature of the world, few are bygone's of past, some are as frolic as the droplets of the rain, but the shimmer of the stories never go and remain eternal. Samayantar is charged with these stories which are timeless and the essence of which is filled with promptness and exuberance of its अदाकार.

Samayantar abridges emotions and goes by the principle-

We create to destroy

We die to be reborn

We are servants and gods

We are theatre.
