

SEPTUNE

Septune is the music society of Maharaja Agrasen College, Delhi University. The name Septune was adopted keeping the seven key notes of music in mind. The society was instated in 2015 and started off as a 4-member team and, it now has over 50 members. Septune consists of musicians that excel in Western vocals, Indian vocals, instrumentals, freestyle rapping and beatboxing and welcome all forms of music. From 2021 onwards, the society has built a great online presence for itself on Instagram through covers of songs their event Rhapsody which consists of Western, Indian and Instrumental Solos. They participated in events organised by the college, showcasing various performances of some amazing songs at Celebration of Independence Day, Annual Day, Marathon Day, Diwali Celebration and Orientation for Freshers. Septune also collaborated with Spic Macay for a week-long event, Akshar. They also participated in the Vocal Workshop by Rindana Rahasya Ji and attended Pandit Rajendra Prashana's Flute Concert and Yousuf Khan Nirzami Ji's Qawwali Concert.

